MINUTES OF THE EVALUATION COMMITTEE

Sesto Fiorentino, 28/12/2016

Subject: Call for a position for a researcher within the EU Project NANORESTART (NANOMaterials for the REStoration of works of ART).

The evaluation committee for the above-mentioned position is composed of Prof. Piero Baglioni (President), Prof. Rodorico Giorgi (Member) and Prof. Debora Berti (Member) as designed by Prof. Piero Baglioni, Director of CSGI, on 14/12/2016.

The evaluation committee convenes on 28/12/2016 at the CSGI offices in Sesto Fiorentino at 10:00 pm to examine the received applications, according to the call issued on 23/11/2016 and advertised on the CSGI and Euraxess websites.

By 20/12/2016, the deadline of the present call, eight applications were received by mail. The evaluation committee assesses the applicants' curricula and their previous professional experiences. In particular, the committee assesses their Bachelor and Master degree's topics and final grades, and the grading of the exams of the courses attended during the Master degree. The committee also evaluates the knowledge of the experimental techniques that the applicants have acquired during their education and internship experience, as well as their self-declared knowledge of the English language.

After a careful evaluation of the submitted documentation, the committee decides that no interview is needed, and unanimously decides to appoint Dr. Costanza Montis as researcher for the "NANORESTART" EU project.
